

GCC is proud to present

DR. BIRUTÉ GALDIKAS

Pongo in Peril:

Orangutans and Rainforests in Borneo

Dr. Biruté Galdikas is a leading primatologist, scientist, conservationist, and educator. For almost four decades, Dr. Galdikas has studied and worked closely with the orangutans of Indonesian Borneo in their natural habitat, and is today the world's foremost authority on the orangutan.

Friday May 6, 2011
7-8:30 pm • Auditorium

Booksigning following the lecture • No Entrance Fee • No advance reservations
Seating limited to 350 • First come, first served • Doors open at 6:30 pm

Sponsored by the Glendale College Foundation and generous donations by the Glendale Sunrise Rotary Club and Doris and Jack Quinn, and with special thanks to the GCC Anthropology Department, Dr. Ron Harlan, Orangutan Foundation International (OFI), and GLAZA. Additional donations accepted.

Videotaping of this event is not permitted