CRIME BULLETIN: Attempt to Identify

Sexual Battery Suspect (Off Campus Incident)

DATE: September 5, 2014

Suspect Description: Male White, late 20's to mid-30's, 5-08 to 5-10, thin build, wearing a green or brown shirt with a peace sign/symbol, shorts (gray or light in color), white shoes with black laces

Synopsis: On Thursday, Sept. 04, 2014, around 7:30 a.m., a Glendale College student was the victim of inappropriate touching on an MTA bus off-campus. After exiting the bus at the Main Campus, the suspect followed the victim into a women's restroom in the San Rafael building. The suspect fled the location prior to the arrival of college police. It was later learned that this same suspect may possibly be connected to an incident at another location on campus during which violent statements were made in the presence of college staff members. If you see this suspect, or if you have any information regarding the identity of this suspect, contact Glendale Community College Police Department immediately at 818-409-5911 or ext. 4000 from a campus phone.

General Safety Tips:

- Be aware of your surroundings at all times
- Know the location of emergency call boxes on campus
- Report any unusual circumstances or suspicious persons to the college police
- Walk with friends whenever possible. You may contact the college police for an escort (818) 551-5205
