Dean, Student Services Announced

Dr. Robert Hill will assume the duties of Dean, Student Services, on July 6, 2015 subject to governing board approval on June 16, 2015.

Robert has almost 20 years of experience in higher education with seven years of successive responsibilities in leadership in Extended Opportunities Programs and Services/Cooperative Agencies Resources for Education (EOPS/CARE) at Long Beach City College, Mt. San Jacinto College, and Southwestern College. At Long Beach City College he also served four years overseeing the Student Life Program. Presently he is directing a major Federal TRIO program for low income, first generation students at Mt. San Jacinto College.

In addition to his administrative responsibilities in California community colleges, Robert has over 10 years of adjunct faculty experience teaching undergraduate political science courses and graduate courses in educational leadership.

Beyond his formal education, he has participated in three leadership development programs: Leadership Long Beach; the Association of California Community College Administrators Mentor Program; and the Glass Leadership Development Program of the Anti-Defamation League, where he is a certified diversity facilitator and consultant.

Following high school, Robert served seven years in the U.S. Air Force. He then become a student athlete and EOPS student at Saddleback College. Robert went on to earn Bachelor's and Master's degrees in Public Administration from the University of La Verne. He also earned his doctorate in Educational Leadership from the University of Southern California.
