Description
HIST 101 studies the growth of Western European civilization from the decline of the Roman Empire to the Reformation. It is an introduction to the study of history, giving a general perspective of the development of those political, economic, and social institutions that explain our present-day civilization. An attempt is made to orient the student's thinking to present world problems. Note: Students who have taken HIST 108 will receive only 1 unit credit for HIST 101.
