

Latinas in STEM 101 Conference

Inspiring Middle and High School Students and Parents to Pursue and Thrive in:

Latinas in STEM

Inspire • Pursue • Thrive

Explore STEM Career-Related Pathway Options and Earnings!

Student Workshops lead by STEM Professionals!

Activities: Hands-on Student Project (e.g., coding, robotics)

Learn about GCC and CSUN STEM degree, Certificate, and Transfer programs

Parent/Educator Workshop Tools to Support your Students!

Saturday, April 30, 2016, 8am to 3pm

Glendale Community College

1500 N. Verdugo Road, Glendale, CA 91208

FREE Continental Breakfast and Lunch!

Register Online Before April 25, 2016 @ www.glendale.edu/aimstem

Note: at least one parent/guardian or authorized school personnel must stay with registered students for the duration of the event.

For More Information:

Richard D. Cortes, Ph.D., AIM Project Coordinator
rcortes@glendale.edu (818) 240-1000 ext 5445

TECHNOchicas

