Hi Jill,

I just wanted to confirm that Glendale Community College has notified the ACCJC of the Baja Program. The ACCJC has noted that this program is comparable to a field visit that accompanies a course, and is not 50% or more of a program, degree or certificate. It also does not conflict with the ACCJC Policy on Principles of Good Practice in Overseas International Education Programs for Non-U.S. Nationals because there are no non-U.S. Nationals enrolled in the program.

I downloaded all of the information on the Glendale Community College website regarding this program and will put it in the institutional file along with this communication.

Please let ACCJC know if there are any changes to the information provided.

Thank you for your work,

Susan
