Executive Vice President of Administrative Services Announced

It is with pleasure I announce that Dr. Anthony Culpepper has been appointed to serve as Executive Vice President of Administrative Services effective September 1, 2016, subject to governing board approval.

Anthony has 19 years of experience in postsecondary education as professor of accounting, dean of business administration and information systems, and vice provost. Presently, he serves as the Vice President of Finance and Administrative Services at Bakersfield College. At Bakersfield College he oversees all financial auxiliary business enterprises, security and safety, facilities, maintenance and operations, community relations and events development functions.

Prior to his transition to a career in education, Anthony served as Chief Financial Officer and Vice President of Finance for DHX (DLS) Incorporated, a global freight company headquartered in Southern California.

Anthony is a certified public accountant, certified management accountant, certified financial manager and an Internal Revenue Service enrolled agent. He holds a Doctorate in Organizational Leadership from Pepperdine University, a Master's in Business Management from Pepperdine, a Bachelor's Degree from CSU Dominguez Hills and Associate Degree in Business Administration from Long Beach City College.

Special thanks to the Search Committee (Paul Schlossman, Ed Karpp, Susan Courtney, Nelson Oliveira, Michael Scott, Andrew Young, Mike Allen, Roger Bowerman, Merilee Ahaus, Saodat Aziskhanova, Hasmik Ghanbary and Christine Ovasapyan) and to those who attended the candidate forums and provided their perspectives to their respective constituent leadership (Andy Young, Zohara Kaye, Saodat Aziskhanova and Paul Schlossman) which were then shared with me.
