

13TH

PANELIST DISCUSSION

FROM SLAVE TO CRIMINAL WITH ONE AMENDMENT

Essence Harden

Department of African American
Studies & African Diaspora
Studies, UC Berkeley

Dr. Melina Abdullah

Chair of the Department of Pan-African Studies, CSULA

Dr. Anthony Ratcliff

Department of Pan-African Studies, CSULA

Please join us for a powerful discussion of Ava DuVernay's documentary 13th with renowned scholars, activists, cultural critics and artists. This event will combine guest speakers sharing their expertise on the subject with extensive time for Q&A with the audience. We encourage all members of our campus to join us for this timely conversation about the impact of mass incarceration in our communities and the necessity of social movements to resist this trend and fight for greater social justice.

MARCH 29, 2017
12-1:30 P.M.
STUDENT CENTER

Flex Credit Available

This event is presented by Black Student Union and Student & Student Equity

