

FILM AND MEDIA ARTS

MASTER CLASS: WRITING THE SHORT FILM

A TWO-PART WORKSHOP:
SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 22 &
SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 29
9 AM - 2 PM

$15 REGISTRATION FEE
FREE for GCC students and all selected high school students.
High school students must apply!

Contact Geri Ulrey for information: gulrey@glendale.edu

CARLEY STEINER hails from New Orleans, LA and has been a WGA member since 2008. She has a BA in Film Studies from Columbia University, and an MFA in Screenwriting from USC. Carley has written for Lifetime, NBC Universal, Oops Doughnuts, Disney Channel, Walden Media, Nickelodeon, and Original Films.

GERI ULREY writes fiction, creative nonfiction and screenplays. She has been published in Gulf Coast and The Carolina Quarterly. Her essay, 13th & B, is a "Notable Essay" in "Best American Essays 2016." Geri is the chair of the Film & Media Arts Department at Glendale Community College. Both of Geri's narrative short films, "The Break" and "Pink no.22," have screened at numerous film festivals worldwide, each winning awards along the way. Geri holds an MFA in film directing and production from the UCLA School of Theater, Film and Television and a BA in drama from Vassar College.