

Glendale Community College Distance Education Course Approval Form

This form fulfills three objectives: 1) It justifies the need for the course to be taught in online or hybrid format; 2) it assures that the educational objectives of the course can indeed be achieved via distance delivery; and 3) it makes clear how students will be able to communicate with the instructor.

These are legal requirements of all Distance Education courses, and this Form is your opportunity to attest that your course can fully comply with these requirements. The more thorough your responses and rationale are, the more readily the course can be approved. The remainder of this document will provide guidelines, regulations, and support available.

Distance Education is the use of technological devices to bring the teaching and learning process to students who are at a different location(s) and/or at different time(s) from the instructor. In this context distance education includes online and/or hybrid courses utilizing the Internet and possibly other technologies such as CD-Rom, video, audio, and interactive exercises.

RATIONALE FOR DISTANCE EDUCATION FORMAT:

- 1) Describe the rationale for offering this course as either a hybrid or online course as opposed to using only traditional classroom-based approaches. See Distance Education Guidebook for more information.

To reach a broader population, increase flexibility in scheduling and learning style, to promote the use of technology, and allow use of a variety of instructional tools and computer.

INSTRUCTIONAL TIME:

As in a traditional course, you are expected to fulfill the hours of instruction required by the number of course units specified in the course outline on file.

COURSE CONTENT DELIVERY:

GCC provides faculty and students access and support for WebCT and a number of other software programs. GCC also provides support for content development and acquisition. Section 508 regulations (36 C.F.R. §§ 1194.1 et seq.) require that electronic and information technology purchased or used by federal agencies must be accessible for use by persons with disabilities. With a course designed for distance education, the instructor needs to make provisions to accommodate disabled students in a comparable manner to traditional courses, such as ensuring that websites are accessible to screen readers for the visually impaired.

*If any web-based course material is identified as inaccessible, it is the instructor's responsibility to put the material in an accessible format in a timely manner. Technical support from ITS will be available if needed. See Distance Education Guidebook for further explanation, approaches, and available support.*

- 3) Describe how the course content is delivered.

- (a) Indicate if you plan to use WebCT or another course delivery system. If you are not using the technologies supported by the College (such as WebCT), specify what technology support provisions are in place.

(b) Describe the methods used to provide access to instructional materials such as publisher material, e-packs, or instructor created material.

3(a) Tool(s) used to Deliver Content:

WebCT as well as classroom presentations.

3(b) Instructional Material Source(s):

Publisher material and instructor created materials will be used.

INSTRUCTOR-STUDENT INTERACTIONS:

Per Title 5 regulations (55376), all approved courses offered at distance shall include regular weekly contact between instructor and students.

Additionally, the District REQUIRES that ONLINE courses also include the following:

- One on-campus, face to face orientation session within the first week of the term. Faculty must provide alternative orientation for students unable to attend the face to face orientation.
- One contact between student and instructor after orientation session and before census day

See Distance Education Guidebook for further explanation, approaches, and available support.

4) Describe the nature and frequency of instructor-student interactions.

a) Include the synchronous and asynchronous communication components of the course, the number and frequency of different types of instructor-student interaction for students making satisfactory progress, and the

(b) nature and methods of instructor-student communications designed to intervene when students are at risk of dropping the course.

4(a) Method(s) of Regular Weekly Contact
