 1. Curtis informed the division that it receives a 10-unit allotment per semester to distribute to faculty who may be in need of units to meet their teaching load. Curtis informed the division that he has used one unit this semester and that Jorge Palma has used seven units.
 2. Curtis reminded faculty that Freddy's office had emailed department chairs their 2023/24 Perkins applications and that they are due tomorrow: May 3, 2023.
 3. Curtis mentioned that in Division Chairs, Dr. Ritterbrown stated that the District is looking for ways to streamline and improve efficiency to the college payroll system. No exact mention of how that will be done, but that the district has an interest in it.
 4. eLumen is now open for data-entry and revisions for courses and programs. They will be reviewed beginning in the fall semester.
