- VII. Report of Administration Committee – Carlos Matute
- Pacheco said that today the committee is going to work on finalizing the first educational initiative during our committee meeting.
  - On Saturday March 15, there is going to be the Puentes Al Futuro event and there is a request for people to volunteer, at least 8 people, with 21 tables.
  - For the people running in the student senate, start campaigning and try to look at how others are running their campaign from other colleges.
  - This Friday on March 14, there is going to be a basketball game that our Women's team will be playing in at Mt. Sac
  - Masaki also shared about information from the DSPS office and the services that they offer for people with mental health problems as well as invisible illnesses.
- VIII. Report of Finance Committee - Claris Boghosian
- Claris mentioned how the committee has narrowed down their first educational initiative ideas down to 2 and how her senators are going to present Finance Report #16.
  - One idea is going to be an informational event about filing your taxes in early April. The committee is in need of someone who is knowledgeable about taxes, possibly an accounting professor or CPA. The second event is about talking more about what we do here at ASGCC to the campus community which is being thought of being hosted in May.
- IX. Report of Activities Committee - Iren Abelian
- Alex mentioned that the activities committee is working on more events, one of which being a Lego event in partnership with CalWORKs to encourage more students that have children to participate.
  - Alex also mentioned how the committee is working on their first educational initiative which is going to be a cooking class but do not have a date and time for it at this moment.
- X. Report of Relations Committee - Isabelle Karayan
- Liana opened thanking everyone for their participation in classroom visitations.
  - Liana also mentioned how ideas for an educational initiative will be discussed during their committee meeting.
- XI. Report of Organizations Committee – Levon Chaglasian

- Levon started off by mentioning how the committee held IOC the Monday before and the money needed to be approved from that is on the agenda.
- Club Orientation is going to be held before the next IOC
