XVII. Reports of Advisors

- Tzoler began with thanking everyone for a great retreat, along with stating how those who weren't able to attend were missed and how we look forward to working to integrate everyone into ASGCC to build a strong group
- Tzoler mentioned how these events that we collaborate and support with are great for ASGCC and how these groups are very grateful for the help and support and how it is important for the image of AS and how important it is for the organization as a whole
- Tzoler then moved on to the educational initiatives and the reason ASGCC moved forward with doing these events was to show the students of GCC what is available on campus with activities that include an educational and learning component
- Tzoler brought up the admin committee and how AS senators should look at the minutes of every meeting so that the approvals are more genuine
- Tzoler moved on to how GCC provides access to online mental health care and other types of physical care called timely care, this care is 24/7 and students have access to appointments and walk in appointments. Tzoler then mentioned how it is the last year GCC has timely care and how important it is to promote and show students that Timely care exists to keep it alive
- Finally, Tzoler brought up the AS student leadership conference that occurs every year, which is sponsored by student equity and achievement. The event is likely to take place on September 25th, and there will be a team put together for organizing the event. AS senators have a chance to join this team to help organize this event that includes a speaker and different presentations.

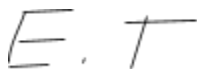

XVIII. Announcements/Information

- Adonis asked Tzoler to share the information regarding timely care for the Senators to further understand
- Nathan then mentioned how he is thankful of everyone's attentiveness during the events and meetings and how the AS executive team and Advisors are here for everyone in times of need
